BIO

19:26 is an innovative Italian electronic music project founded in Milan in 2019. Known for blending ambient and neoclassical influences in their emotive techno sound, the project has gained widespread acclaim for its ability to evoke a wide range of emotions in listeners. With support from notable names in the industry such as Tale of Us, Tiësto, Camelphat, Adriatique, Mathame, Innellea, Mind against, 19:26 has quickly established himself as a leading force in the electronic music scene.

2023 has undoubtedly been a groundbreaking year for 19:26. The recent release of his hauntingly evocative collaboration with Yubik, "Mental Obsession," on Afterlife, coupled his double release on Zamna's "Road to Tulum," has cemented his position as a rising star in the electronic music scene. Additionally, his track "XX" has become one of the year's most successful tracks, released on the acclaimed label "Siamese." These achievements, combined with a string of critically acclaimed tracks and remixes, demonstrate 19:26's mastery of crafting music that resonates emotionally and sonically.

With his unique and captivating sound, coupled with his unwavering dedication to his craft, 19:26 is poised to continue making waves in the electronic music scene. His upcoming projects are sure to push the boundaries of the genre and further solidify his reputation as one of the most innovative and influential up-and-coming artists of our time.
